Holy Father's Prayer Intention for May

Universal: That the media may be instruments in the service of truth and peace.

For Evangelization: That Mary, Star of Evangelization, may guide the Church in proclaiming Christ to all nations

6th Sunday of Easter
May 24 & 25, 2014

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

Psalm 66

1 Peter 3: 15-18

John 14:15-21

Peter and John laid hands upon them..
“Let all the earth cry Out to God with joy.”
Christ suffered for sins to lead us to God..
I will give you another Advocate, the Spirit of truth

In our second reading today, Saint Peter urges us always to be ready to explain the reason for our hope. This, of course, presumes that we do have hope. In our world today, hope can be hard to come by. Yet in our readings are many hopeful signs; the faith grows in Samaria, and Jesus, continuing His Last Supper discourse, promises not to leave us orphans. Listening to these readings, what hope do they bring to you?

7th Sunday of Easter
May 31 & June 1 2014

Acts 1: 12-14

Psalm 27

1 Peter 4: 13-16

John 17:1-11a

Intercession for Life

For all who will die today;
that by the prayers and consoling presence
of family and friends,
they might gently journey home to God;
We pray to the Lord:

Serving God in the Military

By: Kristina M. DeNeve
Adult Faith Formation Coordinator

I recently read a debate over whether Catholic colleges should have ROTC. I can definitely see both sides of the issue and I do not claim to have a ready answer. What I do know is that as Christians, we are called to follow Jesus before anyone or anything else. And today's Gospel tells us that we love and follow Jesus by keeping His commandments, including and especially by loving our enemies!

This is not some abstract idea. We are called to live and work in the world and to help the world be transformed. Every single organization, every institution should be infused with the Advocate, the Holy Spirit. If we Christians exempt ourselves from military institutions, then how can the Good News spread there? What happens if committed Christians do not serve?

Our military has always needed men and women who serve out of love, who serve with reverence for all human life and who will suffer for doing good instead of evil, loving those who hate us. Today we pray for and thank those committed disciples who try to embody Jesus Christ within our military.

Pro-Life Reflection

And when He comes, He will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment.

Reflection. Here is the reaction of a "pro-choice" person upon seeing what abortion is: "I have looked at the pictures on this site on aborted babies and I started to cry. I have always believed in freedom of choice but after seeing this, I have to say this is just murder."

Prayer. Lord, Your Holy Spirit teaches us about You, and helps us to see the full truth about what is right and wrong. May that Spirit reveal to our world its sin and its salvation.
