Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

November 2, 2014

Wisdom 3:1-9 (1)

No torment shall touch the souls of the just.

Psalms 23 (1)

“The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.”

Romans 5:5-11 (1)

Justified by His blood, we will be saved through from the wrath.

John 6:37-40 (8).

Everyone who believes in The Son will have eternal Life.

Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

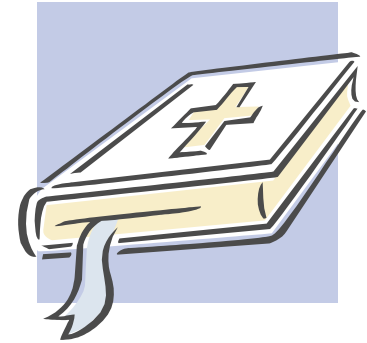

November 8 & 9, 2014

Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12

Psalms 46

1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17

John 2:13-22

Today let us take comfort from these scriptures that can bring hope and healing to sorrowing hearts. For we know that God’s love is stronger even than death, and we have Jesus Christ’s resurrection as proof of that. So let us renew our faith that all who believe in Jesus Christ will have eternal life

Outreach Ministry

The Outreach Ministry would like to thank all the parishioners who give so generously to our Food Pantry..

May God bless you for your kindness!

We have had so many generous people who have donated to the Food Pantry and we continue to service our less fortunate brothers and sisters.

There is still a need for the following items:

Non-perishables: Small (16 oz) jar of Peanut Butter, Powdered Milk

Personal Care Items: Deodorant (Men & Women), Toilet Tissue & Tooth Paste

With grateful hearts, we thank you for caring!

Leaning on Our Ancestors

*By: Kristina Ml. DeNeve
Adult Faith Formation Coordinator

“Everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have Eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day” (John 6:40). As Christians we do not mean this figuratively. Literally, we can (and should!) continue our relationship with our loved ones, our ancestors.

How do we, how should we, relate with our deceased? First and foremost, we must continue to communicate with them. For too many of us, once someone dies, we act as though they are gone and never, ever talk with them again. While we do not pray to our loved ones, continued communication is much like the mental effort involved with prayer. And just as God communicates in and through our lives, so too do our loved ones.

And just as our living loved ones help us and we help them, so too can it be once they have eternal life. God exists outside time, so pray for their souls - pray that they be with God! And then also lean on them! Ask them (who are closer to God than we are) to use their “special connection” to help us on our path. Our path in life and our path toward eternal life!!

Pro-Life Reflection

She . . . Laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

~Lk 2:7

Reflection. The birth of Christ was planned by God from all eternity, and the details of His birth and life were announced by the Prophets. How could there be no room for Him Who owns the world and every inch of room in the whole universe?

Obviously, God did this on purpose. He wanted to show that His Son comes as a Savior to reconcile a world that is at enmity with God.

Prayer. Lord, as You seek room in our own hearts today, enable us to also make room for every human life.
