13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 27 & 28, 2015

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Psalm 30

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Mark 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43

By the envy of the devil, death entered the world.

“I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued Me.”

Your abundance should supply the needs of the poor.

Little girl, I say to you, arise!

The first line of our first reading, from the book of Wisdom, sets the tone for the Liturgy of the Word today: “God did not make death.” In the Gospel Jesus heals a woman with an incurable illness, and raises Jairus’ daughter to life. The key to both miracles is the faith of those who approach him. We can listen to all of today’s readings for passages that point to God’s preference for life and reflect on how our faith can grow in response.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 4 & 5, 2015

Ezkiel 2:2-5

Psalm 123

2 Corinthians 12:7-10

Mark 6:1-6

This is an opportunity to join with our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters.

Please be generous in today's collection.

A Metaphor for Sharing the Faith

*By Kristina M. DeNeve
Adult Faith Formation Coordinator

Jesus' experience with the woman with the hemorrhage in today's Gospel is a great metaphor of what it is like when we share our faith. First, we are like Jesus, walking through our days, living our life. As lay people, we are called to be "leaven in the world." And, like Jesus, we begin this by being open to whatever life brings us at any given moment.

Second, like Jesus, we do not know who we will encounter and what will be needed from us. Like Jesus, we share our faith simply by how we react to someone bumping into us in a crowd. We share our faith when strangers see how we treat our family and friends who question us in public places. And we definitely share our faith when something significant happens and we tell the other person, "Go in peace."

Finally, we must never forget that, like Jesus, we can trust that the Holy Spirit will work through us. The power will go out from us too, even if we don't always know it is happening!
