Universal Intention: That families in need may receive the necessary support and that children may grow up in healthy and Peaceful environment.

Intention for Evangelization: That those Christians who, on account of their faith, are discriminated against or are being persecuted, may remain strong and faithful to the Gospel, thanks to the incessant prayer of the Church.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

March 19 & 20, 2016

Isaiah 50:4-7

The Suffering Servant speaks to the weary.

Psalms 22

“My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?”

Philippians 2:6-11

Jesus emptied himself, and God filled this emptiness with exaltation.

Luke 22:14-23:56 or 23:1-49

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

The cries of “Hosanna” that you heard in the Gospel proclaimed at the beginning of Mass will turn all too readily to cries of pain and anguish and culminate in the words of abandonment that Jesus utters from the cross. With his final words, Jesus forgives the repentant criminal hanging on another cross next to his own. Listening to the sacred scriptures today, let us make our own. Words of that repentant criminal: “Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

March 27, 2016

Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Psalms 118

Colossians 3:1-4 or 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8

*John 20:1-9 or in the afternoon,
Luke 24:13-35 (#46)*

For those of you who do not have access to a computer, you may pick-up an authorization form at the parish office or call us at 455-3012.

Living Catholic in the 808:
Eucharist as a Memorial of Christ's Death and Resurrection

By: Fr. Ronald Rolheiser, OMI
Excerpt used by permission from,
Our One Great Act of Fidelity

“Properly understood, the Eucharist, as a ritual, gives us another kind of ‘real presence.’ It makes present for us the reality of Christ’s dying as well as God’s response to that, the Resurrection, and invites us to participate in that event.

What the Eucharist makes present is not as iconic Christ to be adored or even consumed, but the reality of Christ’s dying as an event within which we are invited to participate. Too often we miss the sense that we are at Mass to participate in the saving event of Christ death and resurrection, not just to adore or admire it.

But how can we participate in an event no long past in history? We participate in Jesus’ sacrifice for us when we like him, become selfless. The Eucharist, as sacrifice invites us to become like the kernels of wheat that make up the bread and the clusters of grapes that make up the wine, broken down and crushed so that we can become part of communal loaf and single cup.

The Eucharist, as sacrifice, asks us to become the bread of brokenness and the chalice of vulnerability.”

Intercessory Prayer: Children - Born and Unborn

For children who are unwanted by their parents, that God’s grace might send others to love
and care for them;
We pray to the Lord.

Class for Engaged and Married Couples
Christian Prevention and Relationship
Enhancement Program (CPREP)

Saturdays: Feb 27, Mar 5, 12, 19, 26 and
April 2, 2016 -
2 to 4 pm

Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish Center

The CPREP program was designed by experts to help couples build loving and lasting relationships. It is for the newly engaged couple to long-time married couples who want to improve their communication skills. You will learn problem solving, a model for helping couples to forgive, a framework to build and maintain commitment, and a way for couples to attain spiritual oneness in a Christian marriage. Call Deacon Tom Miyashiro at OLG (808) 455-3012 to register. The cost is $20 for book and materials.

Good Friday Collection
*A Pontifical Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support Christians in the Holy Land. Through the Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world to stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace in a troubled land.

In these challenging times in the Middle East, your support means that our church will conduct parish ministry, provide Catholic education, feed the hungry, build housing for Christians, maintain shrines and operate refugee centers in the Holy Land.

Christians, along with all of the clergy and religious who serve in the Holy Land, will deeply appreciate your prayers and financial help! The political, religious and military challenges in the Holy Land are more complex than ever. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians.

Our parish will support Christians in the Holy Land through the Good Friday Collection, as requested by Pope Francis. Like Simon of Cyrene, you can help carry the cross under very difficult circumstances in the Holy Land.

Divine Mercy

The feast of Mercy, also known as Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated annually on the Sunday after Easter by the Church. During the 1930’s in Crakow, Poland, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska of the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy received these messages from Jesus, “Tell distressed mankind to nestle close to My merciful Heart, and I will fill them with peace’ (Ill, 20).. “Mankind will not find peace until it turns with confidence to My Mercy.” (I,130)

This year, the Feast of Mercy will be celebrated on Sunday, April 3, 2016. Portraits of The Divine Mercy and St. Faustina Kowalska, together with the 1st class relic of St. Faustina, will on display for veneration after the 11:00 AM Holy Mass.

Lector’s Ministry

Attention all lectors. Remember when you answered the Lord’s call to proclaim the word? Well it is time to recommit to your ministry. Please adjust your schedules to attend a special general assembly and workshop on Saturday, April 9, 2016 in our Pastoral Center. This is a requirement in order to be recommissioned on Pentecost. Please mark your calendars and if you are absolutely unable to attend, you will need to discuss with the lector leader from your Mass or Father Pascual. God Bless from your lector leadership.
