OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL PARISH

At Our Lady of Good Counsel, we love the Lord like Mary does, and we love our neighbor like the Lord taught us.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Pastor's Desk

“Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to stand before the Son of Man.” – Luke 21:36

As the liturgical year draws to an end, the Church, in its wisdom, draws our minds and attention to the last things. We are reminded that there will be an end to this world. This Sunday's reading brings us to reflect on the end of times. The fig tree is used here as a sign for us to be vigilant and be ready for the coming of the Lord. We are also reminded that we need to be vigilant against false prophets who come as wolves in sheep's clothing. We are warned not to listen to them and run around thinking it's the coming of the Lord. We are to remain confident in the salvation won by Jesus on the cross, conquering sin and death and who defeated the powers of Satan and darkness. The end of time is known only to the Father and not anybody else; not even to the Son. Therefore, pray and trust in the Lord and be ready at all times to meet Him in purity of soul, with the totality of your being. Pray unceasingly and be loving at all times to all.

May the Holy Spirit enlighten and empower us.

May Our Lady of Good Counsel intercede for us.

Dear Parish Family,

As we reflect on our role within Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, we recognize that this marks our fourth week discussing the importance of our financial contributions. We hope this constant message of giving resonates with each of us as we are trying to convey how serious our situation is.

Our offerings are a heartfelt expression of gratitude to God for the blessings we've received. Just as the gifts of bread and wine symbolize our offerings during the Eucharist, our monetary contributions signify our acknowledgment of God's generosity and our desire to give back.

These funds are essential for supporting our Church's mission, maintaining our facilities, and funding various ministries. Our contributions enable our parish to thrive and fulfill its role in evangelization, education, and service.

On this SPECIAL Priesthood Sunday, we honor our priests and their vital role, while also recognizing that we, as parishioners, share a crucial responsibility in nurturing our community. Together, we form a united body - combined with our priests, we are the Church, and they are not alone in this mission.

We ask that we all continue to consider increasing our weekly contributions by at least 10% to the Sunday Offerings, Building, and Church Maintenance Funds. Even small adjustments can significantly impact our parish's vitality. Together, we can ensure that Our Lady of Good Counsel remains a vibrant spiritual home for generations to come.

Thank you for your attention and support!
